Mind Body Salt
FLOAT • SAUNA • SALT • WELLNESS

Client Acknowledgement

This acknowledgement applies to all Mind Body Salt services, including floating, sauna and Salt Therapy. Please share it with everyone attending under your booking.

Before your visit

Please follow staff instructions and let the team know if you feel unwell during your session.

Floating. Please make sure you can get in and out of the float pod or pool independently. If you experience vertigo or have difficulty getting in or out on your own, floating may not be suitable for you.

Sauna. Mind Body Salt does not offer Infrared Sauna Pod or Vibrosauna sessions during pregnancy.

Changes to your booking

You can cancel or reschedule without charge if you give us at least 24 hours' notice. If you arrive late, we may need to shorten your session. The full session price will still apply.

Gift vouchers, packages and memberships

We don't offer refunds for change of mind on gift vouchers, packages or memberships. Your rights under the Australian Consumer Law still apply.

Personal belongings

Please keep your belongings secure and leave valuables at home where possible.

Acknowledgement

I've read and agree to the booking terms and understand the information that applies to my visit. I understand that Mind Body Salt services are for general wellbeing and are not a substitute for professional medical care.
